Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the city jail for a period of from one to thirty days, or shall be subject to both such fine and imprisonment, as may be adjudged by the court, and the town marshal and all police officers or those upon whom any police powers are or may be conferred by any ordinance of the town of Deer Trail, Colorado, are hereby authorized and empowered and it is hereby made their duty to arrest or cause to be arrested, with or without process, any person or persons found violating any of the provisions of this section and commit such person or persons, to the town jail or other safe place, until sober if they be drunk, and at such time, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, such person shall be taken before the Police Magistrate to be dealt with according to law, above penalties attaching to each and every offence.

Section 2-- No person shall, within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, have or keep any room or place, wherein gambling in any manner shall be carried on or be set up, or keep any keno table, faro bank, shuffle board, roulette table, playing cards or any instrument or instruments, device, or other things whatsoever with which any money or other articles shall in any manner be played for.

Any person, firm, or corporation, now having in its possession any slotmachine, punch board, or other device for playing at chance which they hold under contract with any firm or corporation, shall have thirty days after the passage of this ordinance to dispose of the same.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, on conviction, shall be subject to a fine in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the city jail for from one to thirty days, or may be subject to both fine and imprisonment, as may be adjudged by the court, for each and every offence.

Section 3-- No bawdy house, house of ill-fame, house of assignment, or place for the practice of fornication or common, ill-governed, or disorderly house, shall be kept or maintained within the town of Deer Trail, Colorado, and any person who shall keep such house, or shall be an inmate, or in any way connected with such house, or contribute to it's support, and any person who shall permit any tenement, building or premises under his or her control to be used for any such purpose, and any person who shall permit any building to be used or occupied for any such purpose to stand upon any lot or parcel of ground within the town of Deer Trail, Colorado, and which is owned, possessed or controlled by him or her shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and shall on conviction be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be subject to both fine and imprisonment as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 4-- Any prostitute, courtesan or lewd woman who shall within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, by word, sign, or action, ply her vocation upon the streets, or at any public place or at the door or window of the house or room she may occupy or make any public meretricious display of herself upon the streets or in any public place in said town, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction be fined not more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence, or may be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be subject to both such fine and imprisonment, as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 5-- If any person in the town of Deer Trail, Colorado, make, countenance or assist in making any improper noise, riot, disturbance, or breach of the peace, or shall use loud, profane, foul, obscene, or abusive language, or language calculated or tending to provoke a breach of the peace, every such person shall on conviction be fined in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 6-- If any person shall within the corporate limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, carry concealed upon or about his or her person, any pistol, bowie knife, dagger or other deadly weapon, he shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court, provided that this section shall not be construed to apply to sheriffs, constables, or other officers of the peace.

Section 7-- Any person who shall throw a stone or other missile against or in any way deface the walls or other parts of any building or buildings, whether occupied or unoccupied, within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, or who shall in any manner injure the awnings, awning posts, fence, enclosures, or other improvements of any character whatever, either public or private property, or who shall fill up, throw, or place other things in, obstruct, or otherwise damage any ditch or ditches, lawfully constructed in said town, or who shall injure, mark or deface any trees planted for the ornament or shade of the streets or private lots in said town or shall cut down, disfigure, mark, deface, destroy, or in any manner injure any tree, shrub, plant, enclosure, fence, bridge, or building, public or private, unless he is the owner thereof, or with permission of the owner thereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 8-- Any person who shall suffer any drunkenness, quarreling, fighting, unlawful games, or riotous or disorderly conduct on his or her premises within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, shall on conviction be fined in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 9-- No persons shall, within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, collect together in bodies or crowds for unlawful purposes, or for any purpose to the annoyance or disturbance of the citizens or travelers thereof. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be severally fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 10-- If any person shall immoderately ride or drive any horse or other animal in any avenue, street, alley lane, or other public grounds within the limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, every such person shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned, provided, however, that this section shall not be construed as prohibiting regularly organized and conducted horse racing or bucking and riding contests on the grounds of the Fair Association, or on other public places approved by the Board of Trustees.

Section 11-- It shall be unlawful for any person to strike or assault another person within the corporate limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado. Any person guilty of any provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be both fined and imprisoned as may be adjudged by the court.

Section 12-- It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, rail-road company or corporation to obstruct the free passage of any street or public highway within the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, by means of any car or cars, or permit the same to remain in or upon any street or public highway across which said railroad may be constructed or operated exceeding five minutes at any time, under penalty of not more than two hundred dollars for each and every offence.

Section 13-- It shall be unlawful for any person to discharge any pistol, rifle, gun, or other firearm within the corporate limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, without the consent of the Board of Trustees of said town first having had and obtained. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offence, or be confined in the city jail from one to thirty days, or may be both fined and imprisoned.

Section 14-- Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this ordinance and upon whom a fine and costs are imposed, shall be imprisoned in the city jail until such fine and costs are paid in no event to exceed six months. It shall be lawful for the town Marshall to cause any person confined in the town jail to engage in manual or other labor for the benefit of the town, and for each day's labor of eight hours each, the prisoner shall be given credit of two dollars to apply on fine and costs.

In the opinion of the Town Board of Trustees of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado, an emergency exists; therefore this Ordinance which takes effect and shall be enforced from and after its passage, approval and publication in the Deer Trail Tribune, a weekly newspaper published within the corporate limits of the Town of Deer Trail, Colorado.
